Adam Auster

Director of Communications and Outreach

As director of communications since 2015, Adam Auster provides leadership to NEIWPCC's communications mission, including the annual report, print and electronic newsletters, fact sheets, and other publications. He also guides the maintenance and design of the NEIWPCC website and other online media. He joined NEIWPCC in 2015.

Adam recently led the redesign of the Commission's flagship periodical, Interstate Waters. His expertise includes writing and editing for a variety of audiences and media, press relations, and providing editorial direction to designers.

Adam has more than thirty years of communications and outreach experience and is a former communications director of the Massachusetts Municipal Association. More recently he worked for Resource Insight, a consumer-oriented energy consulting firm. Adam has a B.A. in Social Thought and Political Economy from the University of Massachusetts at Amherst.
