Barbara Koziol

Information Officer

Barbara joined NEIWPC in July 2020. As an Information Officer in Human Resources, Barbara is responsible for activities including recruiting, benefits administration, employee relations, and database management. She assists with employee onboarding and training, as well as participates in compliance initiatives. Barbara holds a Bachelor of Arts in Psychology from Cedar Crest College.

Barbara draws on more than 15 years of HR experience, with a focus in HR leadership and strategy, recruitment and talent acquisition, and employee engagement and recognition. Prior to joining NEIWPC, Barbara served as the talent acquisition manager for Stratus Technologies, overseeing global recruitment efforts and actively collaborating with functional leaders to determine upcoming business needs. As a Human Resources manager for eHealth, Inc. from 2012-2018, Barbara provided HR leadership by partnering with key stakeholders to develop creative recruitment strategies for open positions, anticipating future workforce needs, coaching business leaders on issues affecting morale and performance, and facilitating appropriate action based on policy and practice. From 2000-2011, Barbara served as a Human Resources business partner for Agilent Technologies, managing recruitment, coaching hiring managers, and developing a comprehensive orientation program.
