Devon Case

Environmental Analyst

Devon leads NEIWPCC's nonpoint source pollution programming. He manages the Nonpoint Source workgroup, organizes the Annual Nonpoint Source Conference, and coordinates NEIWPCC's Biennial Nonpoint Source Training Workshop. Devon also assists with the management of the Tracking and Accounting Collaborative. Devon joined NEIWPCC's Water Resource Protection Division in May of 2022.

Prior to joining NEIWPCC, Devon completed multiple internships with the Presumpscot Regional Land Trust and the University of Southern Maine where he managed and coordinated volunteer involvement and training, helped to prepare water quality reports, performed trail maintenance and tick surveys, coordinated the counting and reporting of alewife spawning, and monitored quality control over a variety of projects.

Education:
