Michael Wilkinson

Human Resources Director

Michael provides expertise and guidance on Human Resource programs, including benefits administration, inclusive talent acquisition and retention programs, effective employee relations, salary administration, performance management, professional development, and more. He manages the workflow of human resources staff members and is a strategic player among the leadership team, responsible for developing, coordinating, and directing policies and initiatives that ensure compliance with federal and state regulations and the implementation of NEIWPC's mission and objectives.

Michael has more than 30 years of management experience in Human Resources. Throughout his career, he has overseen a broad range of HR functions and participated as a senior leadership member in aerospace, medical device, and electronics manufacturing settings. Prior to joining NEIWPC, he served as a human resources manager at Assurance Technology Corporation, where he led HR functions to support the privately-owned, multi-site business, focusing on compensation, benefits, compliance, as well as recruiting and hiring activities. Earlier in his career, he helped to support Littelfuse's acquisition of Cole Hersee Company, transitioning from the head of Human Resources at Cole Hersee to a senior HR business partner with Littelfuse, ensuring a successful conversion of benefits and payroll for all acquired employees, and serving as a due diligence lead on additional acquisitions for the company. In other positions throughout Michael's career, he has supported union and non-union employees with an eye on health and safety, partnered with senior management team members to achieve strategic goals, and implemented corporate initiatives to ensure compliance and professional growth for personnel.
